

Publication Guidelines for 2008

These guidelines apply to authors including, but not limited to researchers, state fellows, research assistants and workshop conveners funded by California Sea Grant. Please refer to them when:

- Preparing any document for publication that is a result of your Sea Grant funding.
- Ordering PDFs or reprints of journal articles and requesting reimbursement for same.

How to Acknowledge California Sea Grant Support

All print and electronic publications resulting fully or partially from California Sea Grant funding should acknowledge that support with the following statement or an appropriate version*:

"This publication (web site, video, etc.) was prepared by [author's name] and under NOAA Grant #_____, California Sea Grant College Program Project #_____, through NOAA's National Sea Grant College Program, U.S. Dept. of Commerce; and was supported in part by _____ [e.g., the California State Resources Agency]. The statements, findings, conclusions and recommendations are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of California Sea Grant or the U.S. Dept. of Commerce."

Use these NOAA Grant Numbers for California Sea Grant work conducted during:
2001-2004 NA06RG0142 2005-2007 NA04OAR4170038 2008-2010 NA08OAR4170669

*If the publication does not lend itself to the above statement, as may be the case with workshop or conference agendas and programs, please incorporate the California Sea Grant logo into the design. Contact Communications at 848-534-4446 to obtain our logo.

Copies of Your Publication

You are required to provide California Sea Grant with copies of both print and electronic publications resulting from your Sea Grant funding, including workshop programs, abstracts and proceedings. All publications provided to California Sea Grant will be sent to the National Sea Grant Office and added to the collections of the National Sea Grant Library (<http://nsgl.gso.uri.edu>) and the NOAA Central Library (<http://www.lib.noaa.gov>).

- Print documents including journal reprints – please send a PDF copy and 5 print copies for our required distribution.
- Dissertations and theses – send the abstract, title page, and California Sea Grant acknowledgment (electronic copies preferred).
- Electronic publications – If there is a physical product (e.g., CD or DVD), send 5 copies; if there is only an online version, please email the URL or PDF, identifying the California Sea Grant project number with which it is associated.

California Sea Grant
College Program

University of California

9500 Gilman Drive, Dept. 0232

La Jolla, CA 92093-0232

858.534.4446

<http://www.csgc.ucsd.edu>

Reimbursement for Journal Reprints

When the preceding acknowledgment of California Sea Grant support appears in a journal article, California Sea Grant will reimburse you up to $500 for costs associated with obtaining a PDF or print copies of the journal article.

DO NOT send the publisher's invoice to us for payment; you or your department must first pay the publisher directly. Upon receipt of the following, California Sea Grant will credit an existing University of California account or send a check to the appropriate individual or department depending on the original method of payment.

If you personally paid the invoice, send:

1. Photocopy of the original invoice from the publisher.
2. Photocopy of your canceled check (both sides), or your credit card statement showing the publisher's charge.
3. Statement requesting reimbursement and indicating the amount and to whom the reimbursement check should be made payable, including payee's social security number, address, email and phone number.
4. PDF and 5 print copies of the reprint.

If your University of California department paid the invoice, send:

1. Photocopy of the original invoice from the publisher.
2. Photocopy of the general ledger showing payment of the expense.
3. Completed (with your account information) intercampus recharge form.
4. PDF and 5 print copies of the reprint.

If you are at a non-UC campus, send:

1. Photocopy of the original invoice from the publisher.
2. Photocopy of the university ledger, canceled check (both sides), or credit card statement showing the publisher's charge.
3. Invoice requesting reimbursement and indicating the amount and to whom the reimbursement check should be made payable.
4. PDF and 5 print copies of the reprint.

Send documents to:

California Sea Grant Communications
University of California
9500 Gilman Dr., Dept. 0232
La Jolla, CA 92093-0232
Phone: 858.534.4446
Email: sgabrysh@ucsd.edu

California Sea Grant
College Program

University of California

9500 Gilman Drive, Dept. 0232

La Jolla, CA 92093-0232

858.534.4446

<http://www.csgc.ucsd.edu>